"Alchi contains over 300 color plates, maps, and plans. They are beautifully integrated into the text and are important evidence of the development of the cult meditation Buddhas of the Varjayana tradition. This volume is an important documentation of some world class art on the verge of extinction."□

The Production of "Knowledge" on Alchi. In autumn 2018 Peter van Ham published his latest tome called Alchi. Treasure of the Himalayas. Ladakh's Buddhist Masterpiece, in cooperation with Amy Heller and Likir Monastery.1 Clearly indebted to earlier works on the monuments, it claims to build on these and to update them (p. 14). However, where the book asserts expertise there sadly is none.
