The late Osamu Tezuka needs no introduction. Over his lifetime he created dozens of classic stories that have helped shape manga and anime into what it is today. 'Ayako' is one of his lesser known works. Rather undeservingly so seeing as it's yet another excellent demonstration of Tezuka's imcredible storytelling abilities.

Ayako is an innocent little girl. As a footnote explains, in Japanese her not-so-unusual name is, unusually, written with the characters 偶 -- which reads, literally, 'odd child'.
