Chapter 8 identifies the appropriate items to include in inventory, including the treatment of goods in transit and consigned goods. Further, a company must allocate total cost of goods available for sale (beginning inventory plus purchases) between ending inventory and cost of goods sold. This requires the adoption of a costing technique.

Chapter 8: Activity Fund Guidelines. Historically, little attention has been given to accounting for activity funds in school districts. The nature of activity funds, however, makes them especially vulnerable to error, misuse, and fraud. In addition, activity funds often total to large sums of money, especially when capturing the amounts that flow through an educational organization in the form of school board funds, student-generated
