cultural studies and film. Cultural studies is an interdisciplinary field of study that emerged in the 1960s and 1970s from a range of subject areas, including literary theory, sociology, and anthropology, to examine relations of culture and power. Culture is broadly defined to include all cultural forms that can be said to shape values, beliefs, habit, taste, and behaviour; particular focus has been on those associated with the mass media, including print journalism, radio, film, and ...
